

Witness Statement.

I, Sharon Hancock, also known as Prem Vasumati, of Drakoneri, Messini Messinias tk 24200 Peloponnese, Greece state the following:

I am born 1951 and became a disciple of Osho, then known as Bhagwan in July 1976

In 1977 I started to lead groups in the Ashram in Poona, I started leading groups when Osho/Bhagwan asked me to do so.

From that time on I was a group leader working in the name of Osho till the present day. When I started in the Group Department the name Osho therapist was not yet in use.

I don't remember when we started using it but I have been called and regard myself as an Osho therapist.

I was given an Institute called Osho Institute for Love and Meditation sometime in Poona 2 (1986-1990).

I was happy to be given this name as it fitted completely to what I perceived the work that I was doing was about.

The work was an attempt to bridge Spiritual and Psychological understanding in working with people, and with relationships according to the Vision that Osho was clearly presenting.

I was also involved in the creation of the Osho Therapist Training in 1991, in which I, together with other friends, wanted to share this approach in working with people here in Europe.

To my understanding I have not entered into any agreement with Osho International Foundation, written or verbal and I have not received any guidelines about my work either in description or content.

The only guidance I have received was a lot of personal guidance from Osho himself in the years of Poona 1 and subsequently from my participation and devotion to Oshos message, written and spoken.

He is and has remained my sole form of guidance and inspiration.

To my understanding I am not bound by any affiliation with any franchise and have not signed any letters of understanding and therefore feel free and clear to work in my field using Osho as my inspiration.

People come to me because of the experience and unique knowledge and understanding that I gained in 35 years of being with Osho.

And this is what I aspire to transmit.

It is my way of deepening the love and trust that I have for my Master Osho

The statements herein are from my personal knowledge and recollection and I believe all of the statements made and the facts mentioned to be true
